Overview:

Our beloved Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) asserted that seeking religious knowledge is obligatory for every Muslim man and woman. Following the assertion of our Prophet, the purpose of this course is to provide its students with the required knowledge in the form of fresh insight into Islam, its beliefs, its practices, and the wisdom behind those beliefs and practices. In this two-part course, the student will learn about Islam, its core beliefs, and its teachings to appreciate the true essence of the directives given by Allah SWT, which is purifying oneself. Every lecture or discussion will be a sincere effort to fathom how these beliefs and directives play a significant role in self-development and the purification of oneself. Students will be asked to evaluate the subject matter presented to them rationally. The first part of the course will focus on articles of faith and how they relate to our social lives, with a brief introduction to rituals. The second part will focus on the laws given by Allah SWT for Muslims to lead their lives in this world.

Objectives:

The main objective of the second part of this course is to discover the objectivity behind Islamic rituals and laws and understand the wisdom behind these laws and how to practice them in our daily lives with that wisdom in mind. The effort is to know that it is OK to rationalize the commandments of God and the reasons for the success criteria in God's eyes. At the end of this course, the students will be able to:

- Understand why worship rituals and certain laws (also known as Shariah) are precisely prescribed by God and not left to human beings
- Identify matters in which God has provided His guidance and matters in which He has allowed individuals or collective wisdom to decide according to the norms of the society
- Explore every worship ritual and law in detail and understand the principles on which they are based
- Rationally evaluate the wisdom behind the laws given by the Al-Mighty
- Understand how the objective of Islam, purification is at the center of every commandment given by God
- Learn how ethics and morality are related to the rituals and laws

Delivery Method:

This course will be taught through various methods suitable for this age group. This includes weekly lectures, group discussions, multiple Q&A sessions, home assignments, and independent reading of other reference material. In addition to the lecture slide, students will be encouraged to read the handouts given to them or other reference material available for reading to discuss and probe deeper questions regarding the subject matter. Appropriate discussion forum(s) will be created to enrich the course content encouraging students to discuss relevant topics in the forum to enhance their understanding. Students can also bring in their questions for discussion in these forums.

Assessment

Students will randomly be assessed on what they have learned after a few lectures through short quizzes, assignments, or projects.

Course Outline:

The following list comprises the suggested topics that will be covered in this course. These topics are primarily taken from Ustaz Javed Ahmed Ghamidi's book, Al-Meezan (Islam: A Comprehensive Introduction). The discussion forum(s), reference reading material, and Q&A sessions will be added to the lesson plan or outline. These topics are tentatively arranged in weeks; some topics may take multiple sessions to cover the topic fully.

Note: A weekly lesson plan or outline will be created based on these topics. The weekly lessons will incorporate practical aspects of the course, homework, and reference reading exercises.*
